SOCIAL COMMITMENT COEUR MEXICAIN GROUP

We show the art, work, passion and love that our artisans put into each activity they carry out, since unfortunately there are fewer and fewer people who dedicate themselves to this activity, we strengthen it and keep it alive, as it is something that gives identity to Mexico, on the other hand, is committed to supporting our group of artisans to promote and sell their creations in Canada through fair trade and consequently improve their quality of life, with the aim of eradicating the discrimination, mistreatment and inequality that they have lived.

We are an agent of social change, dedicated to creating meaningful moments that create lifelong memories.

We offer unique and memorable experiences that transcend the ordinary, allowing people to connect with each other and their environment in a deep and meaningful way. Whether through special events, adventure activities or personalized trips, we are committed to creating moments that last in our clients' memories and bring them joy and lasting satisfaction. But the impact goes beyond creating memories, we also collaborate with local entrepreneurs and small businesses in Montréal, creating opportunities for economic growth.

We are much more than a creator of experiences, we are agents of social change, promoters of entrepreneurship, defenders of love and human connection.

We are committed to creating unforgettable moments, supporting our business and craft community by promoting the importance of physical coexistence in an increasingly digitalized world.
